

Mother Shares Perspective on Death Penalty after Daughter's Murder

What: Talk by Vicki Schieber of the Catholic Mobilizing Network to End the Use of the Death Penalty

When: Tuesday, October 22 at 6:30 p.m.

Where: The Sharon Kay Dean Recital Hall, located in McCray Hall at Pittsburg State University

Listen to Vicki Schieber, the mother of Shannon Schieber, who was just 23 years old when she was brutally raped and murdered in 1998, share her unique perspective on the death penalty. Mrs. Schieber is now the Education Coordinator at the Catholic Mobilizing Network to End the Use of the Death Penalty and is Chair of the Murder Victims' Families for Human Rights Board of Directors.

Mark Your Calendar!

October 22
6:30 p.m.

Thank you to the Sponsors of this event!

Social Work Plus

Justice Studies Student Association

Young Americans for Liberty
at Pittsburg State University

Pittsburg State College
Republicans